

Shelly Lee Cox-Ellsworth

Age 46, of Newark, passed away in New Castle on Thursday August 20, 2009 as a result of a motorcycle accident.

Shelly was an accountant for over 20 years. She enjoyed motorcycling, drawing, investing her time and love in others- most of all her children. After her husband's death of equal circumstances on April 5, 2000, she struggled and overcame many adversities to provide a loving environment for her children and all that entered her home. She did so with love and beauty which is evident through the many successes and devotion of her three children. She was one of those people who possessed the rare ability to see the beauty and light in all, even through the darkest of times. She was beauty in every sense of the word and will be remembered as a true Wonder Woman.

Born in Cumberland, Maryland, she was the daughter of Sandra Crowe and Milton Crowe.

She was predeceased by her first husband, Randy Cox, and her father, Milton Crowe.

She is survived by her loyal husband, married May 10, 2008, Jeff Ellsworth; her two devoted sons, Dane and Gabriel; and beloved daughter, Kaylee. She is survived by her caring mother, Sandra Crowe of Cumberland, MD. In addition, she is survived by her brothers Danny Crowe and wife, Dana, of Middletown, DE; Deane Crowe and wife, Carey, of Ft. Ashby, West Virginia and one nephew and one niece.

Family and friends are invited to pay their last respects on Tuesday, August 25, from 5pm-9pm at MEALEY FUNERAL HOME, Limestone and Milltown Rds., Wilmington. Funeral Services will also be held on Wednesday, August 26, at 11am. All are encouraged to attend.

Interment will be at All Saints Cemetery, Wilmington, where she will rest alongside her predeceased husband, Randy Cox. May they now ride together on streets of gold♦
